

Young Authors Conference

March 16, 2017 & May 30-June 2, 2017

Bethel University

For grades 4-8

Students said,

- You can write about anything, there are no limits in writing
- I can use this in my career
- I will write over summer vacation and see if there is improvement in my writing
- I have to believe in myself
- The more I read, the better I can write
- You have to balance details with action

Teachers said,

- So well organized and interactive, engaging, and informative.
- Wonderful opportunity for students with developed interest/ability to write!
- Every presenter created a sense of excitement about the possibilities available to the students through writing
- Excellent! Inspirational and motivating
